Letters to a magazine

Dear magazine,

We're writing to tell you about good idea for saving water.

The problem is that people don't close the tap while brushing their teeth. The idea is not to open it until the end. As a result, we don't waste water. We save water and it isn't expensive!

Dear Magazine,

We're writing to tell you about a good idea to save water.

The problem is that people water the plants or gardens using a hose. The idea is to collect rainwater in a bucket. As a result, we don't waste a lot of water. We save water and it isn't expensive.

Letters to a magazine

Dear magazine,

We are writing to tell you a good idea for saving water.

The problem is that people wash cars or bicycles using a hose.

The idea is to recycle water:
water goes through a grille and it cleans.
As a result we don't waste water.
We save water and it isn't expensive.
